Terrible Tracy Rodney McRae 1988	Letters	Print, Ink	21 x 29.7 cm	3 letters, one from The Children's Book Council of Australia informing that the book has been entered for the Book of the Year Awards 1990. Two letters from the publisher, Maragaret Hamilton, one stating that the book will be included into the Collins Book Bus programme. On the back of the letter is an idea for the sequel to the book titled Tracy in Space. There are also rough sketches of the strange people, animals and trees. Another letter informs that the book will be sold at a reduced price to diminish stock.	RM 215 (1-3)	Good condition. Has been hand signed by Hugo McCann and Margaret Hamilton. On RM 215 (2), there is a pencil sketch and writing describing a possible sequel to the book, where Tracy is at the Planet of the Plants, where she continues to be naughty. The plants like Tracy and decide to feed her anything they don't want to eat. The plants like her so much, they crown her Queen of the Plants. Tracy Soon realises that being queen is a lot of responsibility and decides to escape. Unfortunately, no one wants to help Tracy.
