Princess of China Pixie O'Harris. circa 1943	Final Artwork	Black ink, pencil	31.6 x 25.2 cm	Small Honeysuckle and Sun Chang look through the door of the cave at Paradise. This is the last of the 8 illustrations in the book. Several notes in pencil: "33758 Dymocks Pixie O'Harris book" "The door slowly closed" "4 3/4" (Arrows up and down left side of illustration), "p65" - (there are only 48 pages in the book) and "1A6 1/4" (?). This was donated by Megan Llewellyn (nee Pratt) - Pixie O'Harris' daughter, PO Box 76, Lawson NSW 2783.	POH 096	Fair condition. The cardboard seems to have faded with age. There is a preliminary sketch of the illustration on the back together with a rubber stamped number, "1959". Tracing paper has been glued to the back of the illustration
Princess of China Pixie O'Harris. circa 1943	Manuscript	Typed pages	29.7 x 20.9 cm	Typed manuscript of "Princess of China" with amendments in blue biro. This was donated by Megan Llewellyn (nee Pratt) - Pixie O'Harris' daughter, PO Box 76, Lawson NSW 2783.	POH 097	Good condition. Paper is a little faded. Rust marks from a paper clip on first and last pages. The words "of China" in the title have been scratched badly to the point of being unreadable.
