

ANZAC BOOKS BIBLIOGRAPHY

The following list is a bibliography of ANZAC titles held by the National Centre of Australian Literature. The name ANZAC includes all Australian and New Zealand persons who have died, served or are serving in wars, conflicts and peace keeping operations around the world and here at home. Our list at present focuses on Gallipoli and WWI. It is intended to assist teachers, educators and interested persons in selecting appropriate titles to add to their teaching units focused around ANZAC Day and the 1915 campaign with which the ANZAC name is synonymous.

Note:

- All publishers in the list are Australian based except where details of country of origin have been added.
- Format of titles is divided into novel or picture book. Picture book here is not defined as a book containing many illustrations especially for children. Many of these picture books contain not only illustrations but photographs, sophisticated text and historical facts presented in the picture book format designed to engage many age levels.
