Showcasing Treasures

While in Canberra for the CBCA National Conference 31 May – 2 June

You are invited to come and visit the Treasures of the National Centre for Australian Children's Literature Inc. (NCACL).

<https://www.ncacl.org.au>

NCACL is an independent not-for-profit organisation that collects, preserves and shares the works of Australian's children's writers and illustrators. We hold a growing collection of over 42,000 Australian children's books, authors' papers and manuscripts, artists' artworks, publishers' archives, research material, ephemera and more.

Come and Experience

- Artists' creative processes from initial sketch, storyboard, dummy and developmental drawings to final artwork.
- Writers' original manuscripts including Margaret Wild's Fox, Emily Rodda's Something Special, Libby Hathorn's Way Home and others.
- View original artwork for My Two Blankets written by Irena Kobald and illustrated by Freya Blackwood, Alison Lester and Coral Tulloch's One Small Island, Alison's My Dog Bigsy and Narelle Oliver's Fox and Fine Feathers, while chatting with our keepers of the art.
- See some of the 4,200 translations in over 50 languages.
- Discover the research potential waiting in our 420 research files on all major Australian children's writers and illustrators.
- Find suggestions for exploring authors' and illustrators' creative works with young people.
