

SARAH JAYNE MOKRZYCKI

WRITER, RESEARCHER, ARTIST

Sarah Jayne Mokrzycki is a writer, researcher and artist with a completed masters and PHD underway. Her research involves the representation of family diversity in children's picture books. Her focus is primarily Australian children's literature.

CONTACT

PHONE:

0262012062

WEBSITE:

www.ncacl.org.au/event/why-representation-matters

EMAIL:

Director@ncacl.org.au

PARKING

Small number of disability parks alongside the Ann Harding Centre

Paid parking is available opposite buildings 22 & 23

Sponsored by

UCEvents

Your Corporate and Conferencing Events specialists

Why representation matters: the importance of family diversity in Australian children's picture books

WHERE

Ann Harding Convention Centre

University of Canberra

University Drive S

Canberra, ACT 2617 Australia + Google Map

WHEN

September 17 2019 - 4.30 – 6.00pm

COST

Students	$20
CBCA, ALIA, Seniors	$25
Others	$30

REGISTRATION required at NCACL website

Nibbles and drinks

Payment options online or cash at the door

DISPLAY

Of titles related to Sarah's talk

Annotated bibliography available

