The National Centre for Australian Children's Literature needs your help!

There are 600 books in the National Centre in 30 different languages that require cataloguing. Australian children's books translated into other languages enable young people around the world to appreciate Australian culture and its stories.

Cataloguing costs $$$$.

Help ensure that Australian children's literature in translation is catalogued, known and appreciated worldwide. Become a children's book hero and join those who have already become National Centre sponsors.
